Bishop Roborecki FOUNDATION

The Eparchy of Saskatoon is made up of about 70 parishes across our vast province. Most Reverend Bishop Bryan Bayda relies on almost 30 Eparchial, Monastic and Religious priests along with Deacons, Sisters, and the laity to help guide the faithful throughout the province.

Needing to nurture vocations

For this leadership to continue as our clergy and religious advance in age, we need to work together to help to nurture the vocations of our future and present parish leaders.

Currently, the Eparchy has three seminarians in various stages of study as they discern their vocation in the church. These young men are prayerfully working and studying at the Holy Spirit Ukrainian Catholic Seminary & Newman Theological College in Edmonton to be a part of the future of our Eparchy.

The costs for vocations

Nurturing these vocations does not come without cost, both personal and financial. Just considering the cost of tuition, books and accommodations, the annual cost to support a seminarian ranges from $25,000 to $30,000.

“ If we don't have a plan in place, the Eparchy will fail to provide the necessary spiritual direction to the people. ”

Norbert Wasylenko
Chair of the Bishop Roborecki Foundation

For the first time in 16 years, the Bishop Roborecki Foundation has moved its fundraising campaign under the umbrella of the Annual Eparchial Appeal. This will lower the fundraising costs and maximize the impact of the funds raising for the education of seminarians and clergy.

When discerning your contribution to the Annual Eparchial Appeal, please remember to consider the donation you would have made to the Bishop Roborecki Foundation and include that donation in your pledge for the Annual Eparchial Appeal.

By supporting the Bishop Roborecki Foundation through the Annual Eparchial Appeal you are investing in the future of our Eparchy by educating new priests to take over from those who have served us faithfully for many decades and now approach a well-deserved retirement.

Your generous support of the Annual Eparchial Appeal and the Eparchy creates a legacy for our collective future and will bear untold fruit as we work together to grow God's kingdom here on earth.
