BABA'S CLOSET

Baba's Closet is not a store where you can buy things, but rather a shop where newly-arrived Ukrainians — families or individuals — displaced by the ongoing war in their country, can pick up free items that help them start a new life in Saskatoon.

Baba's Closet coordinator, Nettie Cherniatenski, started accepting and organizing donations in her garage just days after the war broke out in Ukraine. After just two weeks, it became evident that a bigger space was needed since so many people were eager to contribute. She then sent emails to storage and warehouse owners inquiring if there was a place available for the donations. After a couple of false starts, she was blessed to cross paths with a person who offered her a space on 51st street and who paid the lease for one year! Nettie, known around her community as Baba Nettie, calls this person an angel. It was during this search for a larger space, that someone pointed out that she needed to give this new location a name. Since she was already known as Baba Nettie, the name Baba's Closet was appropriate.

Newly arrived Ukrainians can find all sorts of essentials -toiletries, towels, bedding, clothing, food items, kitchen items, and dishware, and even some surprising items such as sewing machines and musical instruments. No matter what the needs are, all visitors receive a very warm welcome.

Baba's Closet is a volunteer driven initiative, supported by the Ukrainian Orthodox Parish of All Saints and recognized by the Ukrainian Canadian Congress Saskatoon branch as a necessary resource for the newly arrived Ukrainian refugees. The need for donations is ongoing. Items that are required are updated on Facebook. Any monetary donations over $25 will receive a tax receipt from All Saints Parish. The store is open Tuesday thru Saturday 1-5 pm at which time volunteers will happily accept your donations.

We will continue to provide weekly updates in our parish bulletin and on our parish Facebook page of the items that are needed at Baba's Closet. Currently NO donations are being accepted as they are full. Also, Baba's Closet will be closed on Saturday, October 22 to Tuesday, October 25.

CANTORS' CORNER

Sing along with us so that others can sing along with you. CANTORS' CORNER allows you to listen to the propers as you read them (with or without music). Anyone can practice for days or weeks in advance of any particular Sunday or Feast Day so that they can better lead their congregations.

This tool encompasses English language propers for Sundays and Major Feast Days and ascribes to the Gregorian calendar. We are using the translation approved by Fr. John Sianchuk, C.Ss.R., as it is predominant in our Eparchy. Share your satisfaction with others and share your suggestions with us.

We have now posted the English Panakhyda and Parastas complete with the inserts that are used during the Easter Season. Our next project will be the Divine Liturgy (unless we do the Ukrainian version of the Panakhyda and Parastas first). We are also in the process of updating the Sunday and Feast Day Troparias to include the written music corresponding to the recorded music segments. We will always consider this project as a "work in progress" and your feedback helps us to evolve.

Do you have an opinion about that or any other suggestions? If so, send them to me, inahachewsky@skeparchy.org or Chris Pidwerbeski at cpidwerbeski@skeparchy.org.

I want to thank, Chris Pidwerbeski, Henry Spilchuk (a.k.a. - H. Andrew Spilchuk) and Fr. John Sianchuk, C.Ss.R., for their love of liturgical text and music and for their hours of diligent work to provide us this powerful tool. I hope you gain confidence, skill and holyness as you practice and then lead others in prayer.

In your service, Fr. Ivan Nahachewsky

If you receive an email from one of the priests that involves money or gift cards please know that email is a scam. Also, if the email is rather vague, mysterious and insists on discretion that email is likely a scam (The priests do not send vague emails). If in doubt, please phone the parish office before responding to such an email. [Example below]
