Procession with Icons:

This Weekend's Divine Liturgies - February 25 & 26

The First Sunday of the Great Fast is called the Sunday of Orthodoxy. It is the day we celebrate the return of icons to the churches. In the 8th and 9th centuries the church was persecuted for its use of icons in the church. At the Seventh Ecumenical Council it was decided to allow icons for use in churches and for private devotions.

In celebration of this great event we are having a procession with icons at the beginning of each Divine Liturgy: the First Sunday of the Great Fast. All children, youth, and adults who wish to be part of the procession are asked to bring an icon and a stand from home to carry into the church for the procession. (Please label both the icon and stand with your name). The icon will remain in place until after liturgy.

Musical Changes during Sundays of Lent

During the 5 Sundays of Lent, we celebrate the Divine Liturgy of St. Basil the Great, which is similar to the Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom, differing primarily in the priest's prayers of the Anaphora, which are more penitential and lengthier, and in the Hymn to the Mother of God – In You, Lady full of grace. The music for the four parts in the Anaphora are sung differently and more slowly.
